Legislative Decree no. 58 of February 24 1998: “Consolidated law on financial intermediation”

Art. 135-decies

(Conflict of interest of the representative and substitutes)

1. Conferring proxy upon a representative in conflict of interest is permitted provided that the representative informs the shareholder in writing of the circumstances giving rise to such conflict of interest and provided specific voting instructions are provided for each resolution in which the representative is expected to vote on behalf of the shareholder. The representative shall have the onus of proof regarding disclosure to the shareholder of the circumstances giving rise to the conflict of interest. Article 1711, second paragraph, of the Civil Code does not apply.
2. In any event, for the purposes of this article, conflict of interest exists where the representative or substitute:
 - a) has sole or joint control of the company, or is controlled or is subject to joint control by that company;
 - b) is associated with the company or exercises significant influence over that company or the latter exercises significant influence over the representative;
 - c) is a member of the board of directors or control body of the company or of the persons indicated in paragraphs a) and b);
 - d) is an employee or an auditor of the company or of the persons indicated in paragraph a);
 - e) is the spouse, close relative or is a relation up to the fourth degree of the persons indicated in paragraphs a) to c);
 - f) is bound to the company or to the persons indicated in paragraphs a), b), c) and e) by an employment contract or a freelance agreement or by any other relationship of a financial nature that could compromise independence.
3. Replacement of the representative by a substitute in conflict of interest is permitted only if the substitute is indicated by the shareholder. In such cases paragraph 1 shall apply. In any event, disclosure obligations and related onus of proof remain with the representative.
4. This article shall also apply in cases of share transfer by proxy.

Art. 135-undecies

(Designated representative of a listed company)

1. Unless the Company Bylaws decree otherwise, companies with listed shares designate a party to whom the shareholders may, for each shareholders' meeting and by the end of the second trading day prior to the date scheduled for the shareholders' meeting, including callings subsequent to the first, give a proxy with voting instructions on all or some of the proposals on the agenda. The proxy shall be valid only for proposals for which voting instructions have been given.
2. Proxy is assigned by signing a proxy form, the content of which is governed by Consob regulations. Appointing the proxy shall be free of charge for the shareholder. The proxy and voting instructions may be cancelled within the time limit stated in paragraph 1.
3. Shares for which full or partial proxy has been given are calculated for the purpose of determining whether the shareholders' meeting is validly constituted. With regard to proposals for which no voting instructions have been given, the shares are not considered in the calculation of the majority and the percentage of capital required for the resolutions to be approved.
4. The person designated as a representative is required to declare any interest that he/she has on his/her own account or on behalf of third parties with respect to the proposed resolutions on the agenda. The representative must also maintain confidentiality of the content of the voting instructions received until the counting of the votes begins, without prejudice to the option of disclosing such information to his or her employees or collaborators, who shall also be subject to the confidentiality obligation. The party designated as representative may not be assigned proxies except in compliance with this article.
5. With the regulations referred to in paragraph 2, Consob may establish cases in which a representative who is not in any of the conditions stated in Article 135-decies may express a vote that is different from the one indicated in the voting instructions.
